SUFFOLK COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE'S DR. SHAUN L. MCKAY IS ELECTED TO THE EDITORIAL BOARD OF THE JOURNAL OF STUDENT AFFAIRS RESEARCH AND PRACTICE

Selden, NY – Suffolk County Community College is pleased to announce that Dr. Shaun L. McKay, Interim Executive Vice President, has been elected to the Editorial Board of Directors of the new Journal of Student Affairs Research and Practice (JSARP), formerly the NASPA Journal.

The Journal's goal is to publish high-quality articles on research and practice as they relate to student affairs in higher education. JSARP especially encourages manuscripts that blend conventional and unconventional scholarly approaches and those that challenge traditional higher education perspectives.

In his role as an editorial board member, Dr. McKay will review and assess submitted manuscripts using a rigorous set of criteria. Ultimately, he will be part of a small group of individuals who make the decision to accept or reject manuscripts for publication.

Commenting on Dr. McKay's appointment, Kathleen Manning, Executive Editor of JSARP stated, "The plans for the reformulated journal include the appointment of editorial board members who possess clear insight into what is currently relevant to student affairs educators in higher education. Dr. McKay's appointment to this board reflects his reputation as a visionary and an industry leader."
