

Michael J. Grant Campus Celebrates

Black History Month

February 2014 Calendar of Events

Feb. 19, 2014

Sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs and African People's Association

"The Life of Nelson Mandela – A Warrior for Peace"

with special guest Les Payne

Join us for a discussion on the life of this great leader with reflections from Les Payne, a Pulitzer Prize winning American journalist who had the pleasure of interviewing Nelson Mandela.

Time: 11:00am Location: Sagtikos Building, Van Nostrand Theatre

Feb. 21, 2014— Sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs, African People's Association and Campus Activities Board

Black History Month Film Series and Discussion – "12 Years A Slave" – 3 Show Times

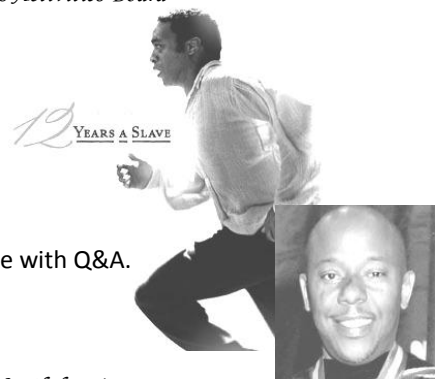

In the antebellum United States, Solomon Northup, a free black man from upstate New York is abducted and sold into slavery.

Director: Steve McQueen Starring: Chiwetel Ejiofor

Time: 11:00am Location: Captree Commons, Lounge

Time: 3:00pm and *6:00pm Location: Sagtikos Building, Van Nostrand Theatre

Special Guest: Dr. Jermaine Archer, professor of American & African American History at SUNY Old Westbury will provide a historical lecture of the times at 6pm prior to viewing and conclude with Q&A.

Feb. 24, 2014 — Sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs, Campus Library, The English Dept, PHI Alpha Sigma

African American Literature Read-in Day

Students, Faculty and Staff are invited to share in the richness of literature from African American Authors.

Time: 11:00am

Location: Captree Commons, Room 114

Feb. 26, 2014 — Sponsored by The Lively Arts Series

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Program

"I Have A Dream" – Theatre Production

This theatre production tells the story of the life of Dr. King and his impact on the nation.

Admission: 1 FREE ticket for students w/ SCCC ID, General Admission $8.00

Time: 11:00am and 8:00pm

Location: Sagtikos Building, Van Nostrand Theatre

Feb. 27, 2014 — Sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs and African People's Association

Black History Month Distinguished Lecture

"A New Paradigm for Black America" w/ guest speaker Dr. Boyce Watkins

A New Paradigm for Black America is the epicenter of the next Civil Rights movement. It's a national community forum, created by finance scholar and activist Dr. Boyce Watkins, for community leaders who are seeking to implement innovative solutions to improve wealth, education, family and community for African-Americans.

Time: 6:00pm

Location: Sagtikos Building, Van Nostrand Theatre

Suffolk
COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Michael J. Grant Campus
Crooked Hill Road
Brentwood, NY 11717

For more information contact the Office of Multicultural Affairs at (631) 851-6341.