SUFFOLK COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE STUDENTS DYLAN FEENEY AND KENNY MEINSEN SIGN NATIONAL LETTER OF INTENT TO PLAY DIVISION I LACROSSE AT FURMAN UNIVERSITY

Selden, NY - Suffolk County Community College is pleased to announce that students Dylan Feeney, a resident of Centereach, and Kenny Meinsen, a resident of East Northport, recently signed national letters of intent to play Division I Lacrosse at Furman University in South Carolina.

Kenny Meinsen attended Elwood John H. Glenn High School and at Suffolk was a 1st Team All-American at midfield and a 1st Team All-Region player. He intends to study Business/Economics at Furman University.

Dylan Feeney attended Centereach High School. At Suffolk, he was a 1st Team All-Region player as a defenseman. He intends to study Physics at Furman University. Both players are captains of Suffolk's 2013 season. Suffolk Lacrosse was 12-5 last year and finished the season in the top five for the NJCAA.

Furman University's new men's lacrosse program will begin intercollegiate play in the spring of 2014, a year in advance of initial projections. Paladin Stadium will serve as the venue for all home games. Founded in 1826, Furman is a private, co-educational university of 2,700 students in Greenville, S.C., and member of the Southern Conference since 1936.
