SUFFOLK COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE PROFESSOR EDWARD ERIKSSON PUBLISHES HIS LATEST NOVEL

Selden, NY - Suffolk County Community College's Edward Eriksson, Professor of English on the Ammerman Campus in Selden, recently published Dancing to Mozart.

Dancing to Mozart is a send-up of Hollywood digital fantasies, Latin American dictatorships, DaVince Code conspirators, movie violence, magical realism, televangelists, mixed wrestling, extreme cosmetic surgery, and a host of sensational idiocies that thrive on 21st Century self-delusion. This quirky contemporary Candide offers a trip through the world of out-of-control egos to a final revelation of ordinary common sense. The satire is a mix of shrewd perception and twisted action that includes the Society of the Crystal Skull, the Opus Dopus, a female wrestling Amazon, a radical feminist colony in Africa, an Arab who wants to recruit Islamic converts like an American billboard evangelist, and more. The book is available on Amazon.

This is Professor Eriksson's third novel, after Moonbeam in My Pocket, a mystery of the Negro League, and Flamingo Desires, a Long Island crime story.
