SUFFOLK COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE OFFERS DISTINCTIVE “STUDY ABROAD” OPPORTUNITIES TO STUDENTS FROM SCCC AND OTHER COLLEGES

Selden, NY – Suffolk County Community College offers a Study Abroad Program designed to appeal to the broadest range of the student population as well as to those interested in very specific areas of study. The College welcomes current students as well as students from other colleges and universities with a GPA of 2.5 or better to participate in these exciting programs that can often be the highlight of an academic experience.

In many cases, the Study Abroad courses include preparatory classes on campus followed by travel dates. Receive college credits this summer and travel to exciting destinations with the following SCCC programs:

Berlin- Visit the pre- and post-Cold War capital of a united Germany. Study the city’s rich history and, in counterpoint, study the Holocaust. Includes excursions to northern Germany and Poland, including Auschwitz. Preparatory classes on campus July 7-9, 2009. Travel dates: July 10- August 2, 2009.

China- Travel to Beijing, Xian, Guilin, and Shanghai. Study the language and culture of this emerging giant. Preparatory classes on campus – June 8-25, 2009. Travel dates: July 1-15, 2009.

Morocco- Rabat, Tangier, Casablanca- the very names conjure intriguing images- Study Arabic while traveling through this colorful and different land. Travel dates: July 1-30, 2009.

Quebec- Quebec offers a bit of Europe in North America. The Eastern Townships offer a blend of Anglo and French cultures that makes this region a fascinating study. Preparatory classes on campus June 1-14, 2009. Travel dates: June 18-29, 2009.

Rome- For more than three thousand years, Rome has been at the center of Western Civilization. From the ancient Foro Romano to the Trevi Fountain, to the fashionable Via Condotti, Rome has it all and displays it proudly. Travel dates: July 2-30, 2009.

Spain- Roman columns rise into a clear blue sky. Hidden villages, castles, and windmills are among the unexpected treasures that await you in Spain. Spain features world-class museums, art galleries, an infinite variety of popular beaches and secluded coves. Travel dates: July 2-26, 2009.
