SUFFOLK COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE DEVELOPS VIDEO SITE TO SHARE INFORMATION ABOUT THE INSTITUTION

Selden, NY – Suffolk County Community College has developed an online site – www.sunysuffolk.edu/SCCCVideos – that will share a broad range of Suffolk-produced videos with its external audiences. The site is categorized for easy access and navigation and offers potential students more in-depth information about selected programs, student life, and institutional initiatives and accomplishments.

Among other opportunities, viewers can see first-hand testimonials and interviews with actual students, alumni and faculty members. Viewers can also see the College’s TV commercials, Foundation-driven events and their most recent commencement ceremony. There is even an option to view all of the videos as a single loop.

“This new site is just another way that we are sharing valuable content with our many valued communities,” said Dr. Shaun L. McKay, President of Suffolk County Community College. “I encourage our residents visit www.sunysuffolk.edu/SCCCVideos and explore the many facets of this institution.”

About Suffolk County Community College

Suffolk County Community College (SCCC) is the largest community college in the State University of New York (SUNY) system, enrolling approximately 26,000 students at its three campuses in Selden, Brentwood and Riverhead. SCCC offers the Associate in Arts (A.A.), Associate in Science (A.S.), and Associate in Applied Science (A.A.S.) degrees, as well as a variety of certificate programs. Offering affordable college tuition, a highly respected Honors program, extensive extracurricular activities, championship athletic teams, and numerous transfer programs, SCCC is a first-choice college for Long Island students.
